

W. Water Street 501 Business Owners Biographies

FRANK C. LISHERON, JR.

Frank C. Lisheron, Jr., attorney-at-law, was born October 18, 1924. He graduated from grade and high school in Milwaukee and attended the Universities of Georgia, Florida, Marquette and the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He received the Bachelor of Science degree and Juris Doctor's degree.

His three years in the United States Army were served in the United States and overseas in World War II.

For 15 years he had a private practice as attorney in Milwaukee from 1952 until 1967, when he began a law practice in Princeton.

Attorney Lisheron is past president of the Cooperative Educational Service Agency (CESA) No. 12, of the Princeton Chamber of Commerce, and of the Green Lake County Bar Association. He served on the Green Lake County Board for Retarded Children and was chairman for the county committee to re-elect the President. He is a member of the Princeton Lions Club.

Attorney Lisheron is married to a Princetonite, the former Shirley Manthey. Their three children are Steven, 18; Karen, 16p; and Stacey, 9.